

6. Maryland Public Information Act

STATE GOVERNMENT ARTICLE §§10-612(a), 10-617(h), 10-618(a)-(c), (f)

§10-612. General right to information

(a) General right to information. -- All persons are entitled to have access to information about the affairs of government and the official acts of public officials and employees.

§10-617(h). Same – Specific Information

(h) Licensing records. --

(1) Subject to paragraphs (2) through (4) of this subsection, a custodian shall deny inspection of the part of a public record that contains information about the licensing of an individual in an occupation or profession.

(2) A custodian shall permit inspection of the part of a public record that gives:

(i) the name of the licensee;

(ii) the business address of the licensee or, if the business address is not available, the home address of the licensee after the custodian redacts all information, if any, that identifies the location as the home address of an individual with a disability as defined in subsection (b) of this section;

(iii) the business telephone number of the licensee;

(iv) the educational and occupational background of the licensee;

(v) the professional qualifications of the licensee;

(vi) any orders and findings that result from formal disciplinary actions;

and

(vii) any evidence that has been provided to the custodian to meet the requirements of a statute as to financial responsibility.

(3) A custodian may permit inspection of other information about a licensee if:

(i) the custodian finds a compelling public purpose; and

(ii) the rules or regulations of the official custodian permit the inspection.

(4) Except as otherwise provided by this subsection or other law, a custodian shall permit inspection by the person in interest.

(5) A custodian who sells lists of licensees shall omit from the lists the name of any licensee, on written request of the licensee.

§10-618(a)-(c), (f). Permissible denials.

(a) In general. -- Unless otherwise provided by law, if a custodian believes that inspection of a part of a public record by the applicant would be contrary to the public interest, the custodian may deny inspection by the applicant of that part, as provided in this section.

(b) Interagency and intra-agency documents. -- A custodian may deny inspection of any part of an interagency or intra-agency letter or memorandum that would not be available by law to a private party in litigation with the unit.

(c) Examinations. --

(1) Subject to paragraph (2) of this subsection, a custodian may deny inspection of test questions, scoring keys, and other examination information that relates to the administration of licenses, employment, or academic matters.

(2) After a written promotional examination has been given and graded, a custodian shall permit a person in interest to inspect the examination and the results of the examination, but may not permit the person in interest to copy or otherwise to reproduce the examination.

(f) Investigations. --

(1) Subject to paragraph (2) of this subsection, a custodian may deny inspection of:

(i) records of investigations conducted by the Attorney General, a State's Attorney, a city or county attorney, a police department, or a sheriff;

(ii) an investigatory file compiled for any other law enforcement, judicial, correctional, or prosecution purpose; or

(iii) records that contain intelligence information or security procedures of the Attorney General, a State's Attorney, a city or county attorney, a police department, a State or local correctional facility, or a sheriff.

(2) A custodian may deny inspection by a person in interest only to the extent that the inspection would:

(i) interfere with a valid and proper law enforcement proceeding;

(ii) deprive another person of a right to a fair trial or an impartial adjudication;

(iii) constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy;

(iv) disclose the identity of a confidential source;

(v) disclose an investigative technique or procedure;

(vi) prejudice an investigation; or

(vii) endanger the life or physical safety of an individual.
